

PULLMAN CAR COMPANY IS SUED FOR $5,000

Mrs. John Morrison Complains of Having to Ride in Tourist.

Mrs. John Morrison of Seattle, in a suit filed in the third district court here Friday, demands $5,000 damages of the Pullman Palace Car company because she was compelled to occupy a second-class or tourist car for eight hours on her way here from Seattle last August. Mrs. Morrison purchased a first-class ticket from Seattle to Zion August 5 last, and with it secured of the Pullman company a standard Pullman ticket, she says, but instead of making the ticket to Salt Lake City the agent made it out to Baker City, Or., only, and at Pleasant Valley, this side of Baker City, she was put off the train, she says, and compelled to occupy a second-class car on the next train for eight hours. Then the conductor transferred her to a standard Pullman, and she finished the trip to Salt Lake City in this.

The second-class car was filthy and foul-smelling, and made Mrs. Morrison, already in delicate health, ill for days, she says, for which she wants $5,000.

She Was Pleasantly Surprised.

Miss H. E. Bell, Wausau, Wis., writes: "Before I commenced to take Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe pains in my back, could not sleep and was greatly troubled with headache. The first few doses of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief, and two bottles cured me. The quick results surprised me, and I can honestly recommend them."
